

Creation and Adam and Eve

Genesis 1:1 - 2:25

Bible Story	Snack Ideas
Read the Bible story out of a Children's Bible or your own Bible. Attention Getter: Tell this story while playing with playdough. Talk about how God formed people and other things like forming things out of playdough. Day 1 - Dark & Light Provide children with inexpensive flashlights. Turn off lights and darken some windows. Talk about how God created day and night. Day 2 - Sky On blue paper add cotton balls for clouds.	Apple slices and Apple Jacks cereal Cut raw veggies with Ranch dip Applesauce Cheerios Day 3 - Land & Ocean Go on a nature walk and collect some leaves, grass, twigs, etc. Make a collage of the items God created or do crayon rubbings with the items. Day 4 - Sun, Moon and Stars On black paper add star stickers, and sun and moon cut-outs.
Day 5 - Fish and Birds Put together bird and fish themed puzzles. You can make puzzles by printing out pictures on cardstock then cutting into chunky pieces. Day 7 - God Rested Bring in some large pillows for the children to lounge on.	Day 6 - Adam & Eve Bring in 6-10 apples of different colors and sizes. Let the children explore while you talk about how God made them different. Talk about how people are the same, but come in different colors and sizes.
